FROM SOME OLD LETTERS
Contributed by Elbert E. Boyd of Detroit.

Note:- Glimpses of farm life in southern Ohio in the early 1880's are contained in some ten letters added by Mr. Boyd to his "Genealogy of the Devol Family". They were written by his grandmother, Lucinda Cuddington Devol, living on a farm in Bristol Township, Morgan County, Ohio, to his mother, Lucetta Fuller (Devol) Boyd, in Indiana. (See pp. 141-142 of the April, 1940, issue of this magazine.) We extract only a few paragraphs here and there from the letters. Editor.

March 16th 1880

...Well we are having a very wet open winter. 'Tis rain & mud, mud & rain, then for a change a little snow, then mud, mud, mud, tis almost impossible to travel the roads with a horse the mud has got so deep. We sent on to Col. Hill and got a barrel of shugar. Mellie took the fore wheels of the waggon & went to town to fetch it home & he said that he thought he would go down & stick fast sometimes.

Well there has been quite a revival at Mt. Zion this winter, somewhere fifty joined. I did not go any for the road & weather was so bad & I had my work to do & when I got that done felt more like sitting down to rest than going any other place... Have not had any girl since the first of Dec. with the exception of Esther. ... Pa started out yesterday morning to see if he could find a girl to stay with us this summer, started to go over to Web. Lawrence's... Web's sister-in-law was there, Della Spooner, mud bound & could not get home, said she would come & stay awhile untill the roads got better so she could get home...

May 3rd 1880

.... Pa was elected Trustee of the Township again this spring. He over-run his ticket about six votes, got them from the Democrats. Pa was in town three days week before last, on the grand jury, & while (he) was gone I went to turn barney out of the stable in the field & I was trying to head him from going down the road & fell & strained my Wrist a little. Tis getting about well now....

June 18th 1880

.... Well, our folks & the rest of the neighbors are cutting their wheat, which is pretty badly damaged in this locality. The grains are very badly schrunken, but dont know the cause of it yet. Pa thinks that we will not get a half crop but I am in hopes that it will be a little better than he thinks. Ours is very heavy straw & thick on the ground, but the heads stand strait up. Oats are beginning to head, but short grass, short & thin. My garden looks tolerably well considering the dry spell of weather that we had in the fore part of the season, & my flowers did not come up, that is very many of them.

Well, I got on old barny one morning last week & went over to Ben's & staid all night, then back next day. Found them all well....

Well, Lucetta, I have been quilting some little. I quilted two scrap quilts joined with pink, last fall one for Lucetta & one for Debbie. Have quilted two this summer, one joined with light striped calico, and the other with red both joined in fencerow, just took one of them out yesterday. They are both for Mother. What shall I do with Lucetta's? Debbie told me to put hers in the chest & take care of it untill she got some place to put it that she could keep it away from the rats, for they are so bad in their old house that she cant keep anything from being cut all to pieces....

July 23, 1880

.... Well, you said the boys had been going to school this summer & that Elbert (Mr. Boyd) learnt pretty well & that Loren was a little too busy to learn books fast. He is not hardly old enough to settle down to book learning yet, but think that he will learn when he gets older. He would not be a Devol if he learnt very fast. I am glad to hear of them being good boys & going to school. Hope they will both be good scholars +....

NOTES OF THE SOCIETY

A very interesting program on December 14 closed the year of 1946. The guest speaker, introduced by Mrs. George L. Austin, was Mr. Henry Daniel Brown, the new Assistant Director of the Detroit Historical Museum. Taking for his subject the story of the Rev. John Monteith, the first minister of the First Protestant Church in Detroit, who was also the first President of the University of Michigan (1817), Mr. Brown gave a most illuminating and entertaining talk on the career of one of the great men of early Michigan History, a man too much neglected by historians.

It is with both regret and pleasure that we report that Mr. Harold F. Sturtevant has left Detroit; regret that he will not be among us any more, but pleasure that he is going to lead the kind of life he wants in the community he calls "home". Some years ago he bought a farm, with an old house to be remodeled, near Hubbardsville, Madison County, New York, where his boyhood was spent. Now he has bought a small general store which he will operate, while he continues his interest in genealogy and history by concentrating on the history of the city of Hamilton. Mr. Sturtevant was one of the founders of the society and is one of the four honorary members. We wish him all kinds of happiness in this new venture.

Another one of our charter members, Mr. Roy T. McNaghten, recently announced his retirement from the U. S. Immigration-Naturalization Service after some forty years in Government service. He has been an examiner of aliens applying for citizenship here since 1929. A veteran of both the Spanish-American and World War I, Mr. McNaghten has been active in veterans' affairs. He was a Treasurer in the early days of the society. We shall hope to see him active in the society again.

The sympathy of the society has been extended to those of our number who have recently lost a member of the family by death:- To Mr. Ceylon Newton Woodruff, whose father, George Aplin Woodruff, died here in Oakland County on November 25, 1946, at the age of eighty-one years. Mr. Woodruff was born in Cardington, Ohio. His father Theodore, migrated to Ohio before the Civil War from New Jersey. Several earlier generations of this branch of the Woodruff family are buried in Morris and Essex Counties, New Jersey. The immigrant ancestor was John Woodruff who came from Kent, England, and was one of the first settlers of Southampton, Long Island.

To Mrs. Elbert E. Boyd, whose mother, Mrs. Cassie praper, died at her home in Baraga, Michigan, on December 7, 1946, at the age of eighty-seven years.

To Mrs. Phebe M. Ingersoll Church and Floyd A. Church, both charter members of the society, whose husband and father, Arthur V. Church, died at his home in Utica, Michigan on December 14, 1946. (See pp. 81 and 82 of this issue.)

We acknowledge with thanks the following recent gifts to the society:

From Miss Mildred Krise - "The Family Tree of Some of Us Hardings", 1946, edited by Elburn Nelson Harding, a cousin of Miss Krise.

From Mr. Marquis E. Shattuck - "Frank Cody-A Realist in Education", 1945.

From Mr. Henry D. Brown - A photostat copy of Some Parish Records of Rev. Monteith.

From Mr. William C. Hudson - "The First One Hundred Years of Bowling Green (Ohio) by Charles Sumner Van Tassel, two volumes.

Also from Mr. Hudson - A Historical Booklet of Greenbrier County (Virginia) the 160th Anniversary (1778-1938).

At the meeting on January 11, 1947, Mr. George S. Deffenbaugh was the speaker with the subject, "Postage and Coinage of Your Ancestors". His talk was illustrated with coins from his very large collection and brought out an interesting discussion.

A WOLFE FAMILY RECORD

Contributed by Mrs. R. F. Keeler of Holland, Michigan.

Note:- This family record was copied from the Record Book of the Wolfe Family Reunions - a book now in the possession of the secretary, Dr. Samuel Wolfe of Angola, Indiana. It was copied from the book by Mrs. Charles G. Meek (Lucile M. Conklin) of Youngstown, Ohio, and copied from Mrs. Meek's copy by Mrs. Keeler for Elizabeth Schuyler Hamilton Chapter, D. A. LIEUTENANT JAMES MARTINDELL (or DALE)
A PARTISAN SOLDIER OF THE REVOLUTION
By William Clarence Hudson of Royal Oak, Michigan

DESCENDANTS - FIRST GENERATION

1. SAMUEL MARTINDALE, son and oldest child of Lieutenant James Martindell by his first wife, Elizabeth(?) Bishop, was born in Union County, South Carolina, between 1771 and 1779. Accounts of his life given in histories of Montgomery and Miami Counties, Ohio, (1) differ in certain details about his earlier years and after his father left home to join the army. One account states that he was left, by the death of his mother near the close of the Revolution, with the responsibility of looking after his younger brother and sister and working to support himself and them. At any rate he seems to have early acquired habits of enterprise.

He was married prior to 1798 to Elizabeth Campbell, daughter of John Campbell of Union County (after, as one account states, having lost a first wife soon after marriage) and was living in Union County with his wife and two children in 1800. (2) About 1803 he went to Ohio, travelling in a wagon drawn by a four-horse team, settling first among Martindale relatives and other South Carolina Quaker families, near Waynesville, Warren County, and living, as it is said, in their wagon the first winter. Three or four years later he moved up the Miami Valley to Butler Township, Montgomery County, where he eventually became a prosperous land owner. In 1827 he went to Concord Township, Miami County, near Troy.

He was a member of the Christian Church. In 1840 he and his wife were still living in Concord Township with a family of seven, (3) and he is said to have lived to be past eighty. His children:

11. John Martindale, b. 1798
12. Rebecca (Williams) (Pearson)
13. Hester
14. Lydia
15. Rachel
16. Martha
17. Samuel Martindale

2. MARTHA MARTINDALE, Commonly known as Mattie or Mollie, was born in Union County, South Carolina, February 3, 1780, and was still an infant when her father went off to join the army. When she grew up she married William Pearson, a potter by trade, who was born, October 5, 1777, in Tennessee, but was probably related to the South Carolina Pearsons. The date and place of their marriage is not known, but sometime later they lived for a while in Callia County, Ohio, perhaps near her father, and afterwards went to Montgomery County. (4). Subsequent to 1840 they went to Miami County, Indiana, where their son Thomas was one of the first settlers. (5)

Martha Pearson died December 21, 1854 and William Pearson, March 14, 1856. (6) They are buried in the Deer Creek Cemetery in the southern part of Miami County, near the village of Miami. Their children:

21. John Pearson
22. Barton Pearson
23. William Pearson
24. Thomas Pearson, b. 1808
25. Pattie (Turnpaw)
26. Betsey (Jay) (Hacket)
27. Rebecca or Becky (Hacket)
28. Nancy (Cook)
29. Sally (Julian)

3. THOMAS MARTINDALE was born (according to the inscription on his tombstone) on February 17, 1782 and was apparently the youngest child of Lieutenant James Martindell by his first wife Elizabeth (?) Bishop. The place of his birth is not definitely known: the 1850 census gives it as North Carolina, but his father's home during the Revolution was Union County, South Carolina. However, during the period 1780 to 1783, home conditions in western South Carolina were chaotic and the family of James Martindell may have taken refuge in North Carolina for a time to escape the raids of the Tories.

According to tradition, Thomas Martindell, after the death of his mother, was looked after by his older brother Samuel and it is probable they were both advised and assisted by their uncle, William Martindale, Jr., whose wife Martha (Bishop) was also the sister of their mother. When William and Martha Martindale emigrated to the Miami Valley about 1802, it is probable Thomas came also, then or soon after, but we have no record of this. Some years later, however, he entered land in Monroe Township, Miami County, Ohio, which he later assigned to his brother Samuel. The time and place of his marriage is unknown, but his wife's name was Lydia and her family name was probably Insko, a neighboring Quaker family in South Carolina. She was born May 17, 1791, and they were probably married in Miami County about 1810. Thomas Martindale was a wheelwright by trade.

About 1829 he moved his family to Carroll County, Indiana, and about three years later again moved to Cass County, Indiana, where they settled north of Lake Cicott. Lydia Martindale died on October 22, 1841 and is buried in the Zion Cemetery in Jefferson Township. A year or so later Thomas Martindale married a lady whose first name was Frances, and who was, apparently a widow only a little younger than himself. About 1849 Thomas Martindale and his second wife moved to Deer Creek Township in Miami County, where four of his children then lived, as well as other relatives and friends. The last years of his life were spent on his own farm just north of the Howard County line, either in Miami County or Cass County, and he is buried in a burial plot on his home farm. He died February 28, 1856. (7)

The children of Thomas and Lydia Martindale are:

31. Sarah (McCombs)
32. William Martindale
33. Jonathan Martindale
34. Rebecca (Hicks)
35. Samuel Martindale
36. Kesiah (Garrett)
37. Renny Martindale
38. James Insko Martindale

4. JOHN MARTINDELL is thought to be the oldest son and, perhaps, the oldest child of James Martindell by his second wife, Margaret Alexander. We have no record of the date of his birth, but according to Hardesty's Historical Atlas he was born in North Carolina. (8) If so, we might infer the date to be 1786 or 1787 before the family moved to Virginia. He seems to have gone with his parents to Gallia County, Ohio about 1809, and was married in that county to Sarah McMullen (or McMillen) on September 26, 1811. (9) He and his wife settled in Huntington Township. During the War of 1812 he served as private in Captain Daniel Womeldorf's company of mounted infantry. (10) After the war he seems to have been a relatively successful pioneer farmer and landowner. (11) However his career was cut short by death early in 1820. (12) His widow survived many years. Their children were:

41. Alvan R. Martindale
42. _____ (son-James?)
43. Martha
44. Sarah Mahala (Condit) (posthumous)

5. DRUZILLA MARTINDELL was born in 1788, perhaps in Bedford County, Virginia, as the family moved there about that time. She was married when quite young in Greenbrier County, Virginia, March 27, 1804 to James Hix. (13) The only knowledge we have of her life is gleaned from scanty records. She was apparently twice widowed and may have had children. In the census of 1830, after the children of Lieutenant James Martindell had all left home, his family included a female forty to fifty years of age, who may have been his daughter Druzilla, and four children of varying ages. It may have been later that she re-married. In her father's will she was left a bequest as follows:

"Fifthly my will is that my eldest daughter, now
Druzilly Jones to have five dollars within one year
of my decease to be to her in full of my estate." (14)

In 1860 she was living with Nathan Rife, and in 1870 with Joseph Rife. (15) In each year she was listed as having a small amount of personal property, so she was not entirely dependent. According to the census taker she was unable to read or write, showing the primitive, pioneer conditions under which she had been reared. We have no knowledge as to whether she had children, other than the inference to be derived from that fact that she spent her old age in the homes of her nephews.

6. TABITHA MARTINDELL, often known as "Tabby", was born in 1790, probably in Bedford County, Virginia. Some time later her parents moved to Greenbrier County and she grew to womanhood in that county. The frontier conditions under which she spent her girlhood afforded little or no opportunity for schooling. Accompanying her parents to Gallia County, Ohio, she was married there on November 28, 1811, to Henry Rife (16) also born in 1790, and perhaps the son of George Rife an early pioneer settler in Gallia County. Henry and Tabitha made their home in the valley of Champaign Creek a few miles from the home of Tabitha's father, and were living there in 1830 in Morgan Township (17) with their seven children.

Henry Rife died in 1833 after which Tabitha returned to Addison Township and lived in the locality which is still occupied by a large number of her descendants. After she became a widow, it seems she was assisted in raising her family by various small loans from her father. About the time of Lieutenant James Martindell's third marriage, she entered into an agreement with her father by the terms of which she agreed for him to stay at her farm and use firewood therefrom in consideration of which he paid her the sum of $20.00 and released the title bond he had against her property. (18) This bond and the other loans were cancelled by the bequest in her father's will, reading as follows:

"Sixthly, my will is that Tabby Rife, my second daughter do receive all notes, bonds and accounts I hold against her to be to her in full of my estate."

Her son Jonathan and his family were living with her in 1850; in 1860 she was living with her son Joseph, and the census taker reports her as being blind. She died in April, 1863 (19), and is buried beside her husband in the country cemetery near Bulaville, Gallia County, Ohio, known as the Rife Cemetery. Her children (20):

61. Jonathan Rife, b. 1816
62. Mary Rife, m. James Lasley; went to Cass County, Missouri.
63. James Rife, b. 1820-1826, m. Mary Erwin; went to Cass Co., Mo.

"'Tis better to be meanly born and good,
Than one unworthy of his noble blood;
Though all thy walls shine with thy pedigree
Yet virtue only makes nobility.
Then that thy pedigree may useful be,
Search out the virtues of thy family;
And to be worthy of thy father's name
Learn out the good they did and do the same;
For if you bear their arms and not their fame
These ensigns of their worth will be your shame."

An old poem.

Arthur Vic Church (above), born March 29th, 1871, Davis, Michigan, died December 14, 1946 in Utica, Michigan, was a descendant of several of the pioneers of Macomb County - among them Haswell H. Church, Harlehigh Cartter and Calvin Davis. These men and their families have all played a prominent part in the development of the county. His son, Floyd A., has assembled a great amount of family history, some of which we have published. See p. 140, April 1939; pp. 119-120, March 1940; and the Davis Family Genealogy, October 1939 to January 1940.- Editor.

CAPT. JONATHAN PAINE OF FALMOUTH, MAINE
Compiled by Dr. Olive M. Searle of Ann Arbor, Michigan.

While compiling the "NOTES ON THE COBB FAMILY OF FALMOUTH, MAINE" which appeared in the two preceding issues of this magazine, some material has also been gathered from scattered sources concerning a Jonathan Paine, who was almost certainly the son of Jonathan and Mercey (Doane) Paine. (See pp. 31 and 32, November-December 1946) As noted there he married Dorcas Cox, 19 Feb. 1767. From "The Cox Family in America" by the Rev. Henry Miller Cox, 1912, we learn that she was the daughter of John 4, (John 3, John 2, William 1) and Sarah (Procter) Cox. The records of the First Church of Falmouth give baptismal dates for ten children.

1. Dorcas Bpt. 6 March 1768; unm.
2. Elizabeth " 13 Aug. 1769; unm.
3. Jonathan " 5 July 1772; probably died Aug. 11, 1823, age 51.
(Eastern Cemetery)
4. Nancy " 25 Oct. 1774; m. Moses Adams, int. 30 March 1796.
5. Harriet " 21 Sept. 1777; m. Moses Winslow, int. 13 Nov. 1803.
6. Charles " 14 Nov. 1779; d. inf.
7. Phebe " 26 May 1782; m. --- Garland.
8. Charles " 13 June 1784; d. inf.
9. Sophia " 24 Sept. 1786; m. Wm. P. Davis, int. Dec. 15, 1805
10. Alexander* " 9 Aug. 1789; unm.; d. at sea.

"The Cox Family in America" gives two Johns and no Jonathan, but as no dates are given, we have listed the children for whom records have been found.

*Perhaps it adds a feather's weight to the circumstantial evidence offered in the November-December issue for the belief that Reliance (Paine) Cobb was the sister of Capt. Jonathan Paine to note that the rather unusual name of Alexander was given by her grandson, William Cobb Dow, to one of his sons. Alexander Paine was about fourteen years old when William Cobb Dow (perhaps his first cousin once removed) was born, and they may have been well known to each other.

This Capt. Jonathan Paine is probably the one referred to in an interesting petition dated Falmouth, Augt. 24th, 1780:

"The petition of Jno Archer & others owners of a small Schooner called the Dispatch of about 50 Tons, Navigated with Six men bound for the west Indies, Jonathan Paine Master Humbly Shew,-

That this Town are in great want of many Necessaries from the West Indies; the Merchants here having lost almost all their Vessels During the War; that your Petitioners have exerted themselves to procure a load of Boards, Shingles, and fish for said Schooner and she is now ready for Sea, but the Naval Officer cannot clear out said vessel by Reason of an Act of Court Laying an Imbargo on all Vessels

Wherefore your petitioners humbly pray that your Honours will be pleased to allow the Naval Officer to clear out said Schooner for the West Indies" (Documentary History of Maine - 2nd Series, Vol. XVIII, p. 383.)

The petition was granted.

The 1790 Census for Portland Town lists Jonathan Paine with a family of two males over 16, one male under 16, and seven females.

That Capt. Jonathan Paine and his wife, Dorcas, were living as late as 19 Sept. 1823 is proven by the following deed (Cumberland Deeds, 96;300):

"Jonathan Paine of Westbrook, Yeoman, for $725, sold to Dudley Cammett, gentleman, and John Conner, Blockmaker, both of Portland, a small lot of flats in Portland with wharfs and store thereto, being part of what is called Portland pier being the same store the said Cammett and Conner now occupy Dorcas Paine relinquishes dower" . . . signed by Jonathan Paine and Dorcas Paine. (Part of Falmouth became Westbrook.)

In his diary the Rev. Mr. Deane notes the death at Westbrook in 1823 of Capt. Jonathan Paine, doubtless the son of Jonathan and Mercy (Doane) Paine, then in his 83rd year.
